CAO's Report for December 14, 2017

Completed Issues:

1. Election held December 6, 2017. Darcy Stefiuk elected with 76 votes, Robert Bowler defeated with 64 votes.
2. Basement floor painting complete.
3. 15-minute parking sign installed at Rexall Drugs.

On-going Issues:

1. I was requested by Council to inquire about insurance coverage for power poles installed on Main Street to be used for banner poles. Leon Cornet has expressed that there are no issues around liability for this use. A motion has been included at the request of Councilor Giesen-Stefiuk.
2. Five nominations for Mayor were received on December 6, 2017. Three candidates withdrew prior to the expiry of the 24-hour withdrawal period, leaving Nominees for the position of Mayor for the Town of Gravelbourg are Travis Rushinko and Robert Bowler. Notices regarding the candidates, notices of advanced polls and election day were posted on December 8, 2017.
3. Preparations for byelection for Mayor under way.
4. A bylaw regarding the Retention and Disposal of documents is included in the agenda.
5. Lafrienerie request for payment. Item was tabled at the last meeting.
6. A Bylaw for abating taxes for the purposes of not-for-profit use and economic development is included in this agenda. All agreements that are still in place expire December 31, 2017. All new agreements are included as well. The changes to the Education Property Tax collection commencing in 2018 have all economic development abatements subject to Ministry approval.
